DEFINITIONS

Half-Time

Enrollment is 6 semester hours for undergraduate students and 5 semester hours for graduate/professional students.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA): All students are expected to contribute towards the cost of their post-secondary education. The FAFSA is the application used by the U.S Department of Education to determine the student's Expected Family Contribution and to conduct a needs analysis. The FAFSA is used by the Office of Student Financial Aid to determine eligibility for federal, state, institutional, and private grants, scholarships, loans, and any other applicable laws.

Regular Student

As defined by the Federal Department of Education, a regular student is someone enrolled or accepted for enrollment at an institution for the purpose of obtaining a degree, certificate, or other recognized education credential offered by the institution.

Selective Service Registration

Selective Service Registration is for the military draft. It is required by law for male individuals to register upon reaching the age of 18. Male students who are U. S. citizens must meet the federal guidelines for selective service registration, as a requirement for receiving state student aid.
