

Unite 2025 Team

Angela Maskey:

Angela works in the Director's Suite of the Georgia Cancer Center and has been with the team for 5 years. This is her 3rd year on the Unite in the Fight committee, and she is proud to support the patient programs because of the great care the clinical team provided to her niece during her AML treatment. At the event, she will likely be running all over the place, but if you need to pin her down, stop by Event Headquarters (glass room inside) and her husband Kevin will track her down!

Barbara Anderson:

Barbara works with the Operations Team of the Georgia Cancer Center and has been with the team for 4 years. This is her 3rd year on the Unite in the Fight committee, and she is proud to support the work of research and patient care for Cancer patients! For the past 2 Unite events, she was the Logistics Chair and could be found during the event driving a golf cart and assisting with the coordination with the AU PD.

Natasha Alford

Natasha Alford is an Administrative Assistant and the Program Manager for the PRIDE-FTG training program at the Georgia Cancer Center. Now in her third year on the Unite in the Fight Committee, she is passionate about initiatives like this that directly support the organization's mission. At the event, you'll find her at the volunteer station, ensuring all stations are staffed and running smoothly!

Chris Curry, BA

Chris Curry is a communications and marketing professional with nearly 20 years in the media relations workforce. He started his career in radio working for WZNY Y105 in Augusta. During and after college, Chris worked for News 12 NBC 26 for 14 years. He moved to the Georgia Cancer Center in April 2017.

Shannon Williams, RN, BSN:

Shannon works as a Radiation Oncology Nurse at Georgia Radiation Cancer Center and has been with the team for one and a half years. This is her 1st year on the Unite in the Fight committee. She is proud to be involved in raising money for patient programs because they go in part to support the patients who are seen at the Radiation Center.

Maryclaire Regan

Maryclaire works on the Cancer Information and Awareness team and has been with the team for 3.5 years. This is her 2nd year on the Unite in the Fight Committee. She is passionate about Unite because it is an opportunity to joyfully celebrate cancer survivors and their loved ones. At the event, she will be at the Kids' Zone.

Rachel Johaneck MS, RD, CSO, LD

Rachel is an Oncology Dietitian in our outpatient adult spaces and is the head of our Employee Morale committee, the Social Networking League (SNL). Unite in the Fight 2025 will mark her 10-year anniversary with the Georgia Cancer Center, and this is her third year on the committee. She has been fortunate to receive grant money from Unite to help with nutrition supplies for patients that don't have that vital need included in their insurance, so she's seen the benefit of this firsthand. On the day of, she is typically in charge of the merch station so she should be easy to find! During the lead up, she'll be coordinating our raffle as well!

Dr. Brenda Santellano

Brenda works at the Georgia Cancer Center, where she is involved in community-focused projects to improve cancer screening. She is passionate about enhancing patient care and promoting awareness. This marks her 3rd year volunteering for United in the Fight and her 2nd year serving on the event committee. At the event, Brenda will be welcoming and organizing volunteers to the cheering stations, helping to create a supportive and inspiring experience for all participants.

Dr. Kenza Mamouni

Kenza is part of the Scientific Affairs and Education & Training Teams in the GCC, serving as Scientific Writer. She has been volunteering with Unite in the Fight since 2019. At the event, she will be at the "cancer education" booth, which will display a pipetting station and provide information on various cancer educational programs designed for local schools and their teachers.

Melanie Lovelace MSN, RN

Melanie is the Nurse Educator for the Georgia Cancer Center sites and has been working in the Oncology field for 6 years. She is excited to contribute this year as a new team member and to be able to show support for her own family members and other members of the community who have been impacted by cancer.

Carol Utter, BSN, RN

Carol Utter is a Nurse Navigator with the GI Surgical Oncology team at the Georgia Cancer Center and has been with the team for 2yrs. This is the 3rd time volunteering for United in the Fight. She is proud to support a mission that positively impacts our patients that we serve every day at the cancer center.

Lindsey Morris

Lindsey is the Communication Strategist for the Georgia Cancer Center and has been with the team for three years. Lindsey helps promote Unite and the work it does for our community through internal and external media channels. This will be her fourth year assisting Unite in the fight and she is excited to see how it continues to grow.

Bethanie Coogler

Bethanie is an Administrative Assistant in the Director's Suite of the Georgia Cancer Center and has been a valued team member since 2022. She enjoys lending a hand and supporting events in any way possible! Now in her third year on the Unite in the Fight committee, Bethanie works to make sure things run smoothly. You'll find her at the registration table, greeting participants with a warm smile and making sure everyone is checked in and ready to start the walk! Be sure to stop by and say hello—she'll be cheering you on every step of the way!

Gita Giddens, RN, BSN, OCN, CBCN

Gita works as a Clinical BMT and IEC Coordinator. She has been an Oncology Nurse for 32 years and this is her 5th year volunteering for Unite In the Fight. She is honored and fortunate to have the opportunity to raise funds that will go directly to improve care for patients and staff at The Georgia Cancer Center. You will see her at Event in the VIP area pampering Cancer survivors.

Andrea Rhoden, RN

Andrea has been a breast oncology nurse navigator at the Georgia Cancer Center for 6 years. She is passionate about Unite in the Fight Against Cancer and has served as event co-chair on the planning committee for three years.

Hannah Seigler, RN

Hannah Seigler is an Oncology Clinic Nurse at the Georgia Cancer Center and has been with the team for almost three years. This is her first year on the Unite in Fight committee. She is proud to raise funds for programs that will benefit her patients and their care.

Kara L. Prior, BSN, RN

Kara Prior is a radiation oncology nurse at GRTC. She has been with the our team for 5 years now between GCC downtown and GRTC. First time on Unite committee but also volunteered the first year. She fell in love working with cancer patients throughout their journey taking care of her Aunt and Mother with Breast cancer. Besides her patients, her passion is Legos and building blocks! Anyone need lasting flowers made of legos, see Kara 😊
